Memorandum of Association of Volunteer Centre Uttlesford

1 The company's name is Volunteer Centre Uttlesford (and in this document it is called "the Charity").

2 The Charity's registered office is to be situated in England.

3 The Charity's objects ("the Objects") are to promote the advancement of education, the protection of health, the relief of poverty, sickness and distress and any other charitable purpose for the benefit of the community in and around the District of Uttlesford in the County of Essex ("the Area of Benefit") by the promotion of voluntary service and for these purposes, but not otherwise, the Charity shall:

a) advise and guide persons willing to volunteer;

b) provide a centre or centres; and

c) advise and guide organisations using volunteers, particularly those being members of the Charity.

4.1 In addition to any other powers it may have, the Charity has the following powers in order to further the Objects (but not for any other purpose):

(a) to provide an information service for prospective volunteers, giving them advice and guidance and referring them to the most appropriate agency;

(b) to act as a central recruiting agency for voluntary and statutory bodies;

(c) to be a focal point for organisations using volunteers, encouraging the exchange of ideas and promoting specific projects, when needed;

(d) to provide a central information service to organisations to discuss the role of volunteers and their training and to undertake, both alone and with other organisations, the running of relevant training courses;

(e) to hold and conduct, and assist others in arranging and conducting, conferences, exhibitions, meetings, classes, seminars and enquiries;

(f) to collect information and disseminate the same by written, spoken, electronic or any other suitable media;

(g) to cause to be written and printed or otherwise reproduced and circulated, gratuitously or otherwise, papers, books, periodicals, pamphlets, leaflets or other documents or films or recorded tapes, discs or other recording media (whether audio, visual or both);

(h) to promote and carry out, or assist in promoting and carrying out, research, surveys and investigations and to publish the results and findings of such works

(i) to raise funds, by way of contributions, donations, legacies, grants and any other lawful methods. In doing so, the Charity must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;

(j) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property, real or personal, and to maintain and equip it for use;

(k) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity. In exercising this power, the Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993;

(l) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed. The Charity must comply, as appropriate, with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, if it wishes to mortgage land;

(m) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;

(n) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;

(o) to acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other charity formed for any of the Objects;

(p) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure, but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;

(q) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for supervising, organising and carrying out the work of the Charity and to make all reasonable and necessary provision for the payment of pensions and superannuation to or on behalf of employees and their dependants. The Charity may employ or remunerate a

Director only to the extent it is permitted to do so by clause 5 and provided it complies with the conditions in that clause;

(r) to:

(i) deposit or invest funds;

(ii) employ a professional fund-manager; and

(iii) arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee;

in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;

(s) to provide indemnity insurance for the Directors or any other officer of the Charity in relation to any such liability as is mentioned in sub-clause 4.2 of this clause, but subject to the restrictions specified in sub-clause 4.3 of this clause;

(t) to pay, out of the funds of the Charity, the costs of forming and registering the Charity, both as a company and as a charity;

(u) to do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the achievement of the Objects;

4.2 The liabilities referred to in paragraph (s) of sub-clause 4.1 are:

(a) any liability that, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to a director or other officer of a company in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, of which he or she may be guilty in relation to the Charity;

(b) the liability to make a contribution to the Charity's assets, as specified in section 214 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (wrongful trading).

4.3 (a) The following liabilities are excluded from paragraph (a) of sub-clause 4.2:

(i) fines;

(ii) costs of unsuccessfully defending criminal prosecutions for offences arising out of the fraud, dishonesty or wilful or reckless misconduct of the Director or other officer;

(iii) liabilities to the Charity that result from conduct that the Director or other officer knew or must be assumed to have known was not in the best interests of the Charity or about which the person concerned did not care whether it was in the best interests of the Charity or not.

(b) There is excluded from paragraph (b) of sub-clause 4.2 any liability to make such a contribution where the basis of the Director's liability is his or her knowledge prior to the insolvent liquidation of the Charity (or reckless failure to acquire that knowledge) that there was no reasonable prospect that the Charity would avoid going into insolvent liquidation.

5.1 The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

5.2 (a) A Director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity, or may pay out of such property, reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.

(b) Subject to the restrictions in sub-clauses 4.2 and 4.3, a Director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity's expense.

5.3 None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent a member, who is not also a Director, receiving:

(a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity;

(b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.

5.4 No Director may:

(a) buy goods or services from the Charity;

(b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Charity;

(c) be employed by or receive any remuneration from the Charity;

(d) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity;

unless the payment or transaction is previously and expressly authorised in writing by the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales ("the Commission").

5.5 In sub-clauses 5.2 to 5.4 of this clause 5:

(a) "Charity" shall include any company in which the Charity:

- holds more than 50% of the shares; or
- controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
- has the right to appoint one or more directors to the Board of the company

(b) "Director" shall include any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the Director or any person living with the Director as his or her partner.

6 The liability of the members is limited.

7 Every member promises, if the Charity is dissolved while he or she is a member or within twelve months after he or she ceases to be a member, to contribute such sum (not exceeding One pound (£1)) as may be demanded of him or her towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Charity incurred before he or she ceases to be a member, and of the costs charges and expenses of winding up, and the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

8.1 The members of the Charity may, at any time before, and in expectation of, its dissolution, resolve that any net assets of the Charity, after all its debts and liabilities have been paid, or provision has been made for them, shall, on or before the dissolution of the Charity, be applied or transferred in any of the following ways:

(a) directly for the Objects; or

(b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes similar to the Objects; or

(c) to any charity for use for particular purposes that fall within the Objects.

8.2 Subject to any such resolution of the members of the Charity, the Directors of the Charity may, at any time before, and in expectation of, its dissolution, resolve that any net assets of the Charity, after all its debts and liabilities have been paid, or provision has been made for them, shall, on or before dissolution of the Charity, be applied or transferred in any of the following ways:

(a) directly for the Objects; or

(b) by transfer to any charity or charities for purposes similar to the Objects; or

(c) to any charity or charities for use for particular purposes that fall within the Objects.

8.3 In no circumstances shall the net assets of the charity be paid to, or distributed among, the members of the Charity (except to a member that is, itself, a charity) and, if no such resolution is passed by the members or the Directors, the net assets of the Charity shall be applied for charitable purposes as directed by the court or the Commission.

We, the persons whose names and addresses are written below, wish to be formed into a company under this Memorandum of Association.

Articles of Association of Volunteer Centre Uttlesford
As amended by Special Resolution dated 23rd July 2008.

Interpretation.

1 In these articles:

"the Act" means the Companies Act 1985;

"address" means a postal address or, for the purposes of electronic communication, a fax number, an e-mail address or a text message number, in each case registered with the Charity;

"the Area of Benefit" means the District of Uttlesford in the County of Essex;

"the Charity" means the company intended to be regulated by these articles;

"clear days" in relation to the period of a notice means a period excluding:

- the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given; and
- the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect;

"the Commission" means the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales;

"the memorandum" means the memorandum of association of the Charity;

"officers" includes the Directors and the secretary;

"the seal" means the common seal of the Charity, if it has one;

"secretary" means the secretary of the Charity or any other person appointed to perform the duties of the secretary of the Charity, including a joint, assistant or deputy secretary;

"the Directors" means the directors of the Charity. The directors are charity trustees as defined by Section 97 of the Charities Act 1993;

"the United Kingdom" means Great Britain and Northern Ireland; and words importing one gender shall include all genders, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these articles have the same meaning as in the Act but excluding any statutory modification not in force when this constitution becomes binding on the Charity.

Apart from the exception mentioned in the previous paragraph, a reference to an Act of Parliament includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of it for the time being in force.

Members.

2(1) The subscribers to the memorandum are the first members of the Charity.

(2) Membership is open to other individuals (aged 18 years or older) or organisations (functioning within and around the Area of Benefit) who:

(a) apply to the Charity in the form required by the Directors; and

(b) are approved by the Directors.

(3) (a) The Directors may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the Charity to refuse the application.

(b) The Directors must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal within twenty-one days of the decision.

(c) The Directors must consider any written representations the applicant may make about the decision. The Directors' decision following any written representations must be notified to the applicant in writing but shall be final.

(4) The Directors may from time to time prescribe an annual subscription payable by members.

(5) Membership is not transferable to anyone else.

(6) The Directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members.

Classes of Membership.

3(1) The Directors may establish classes of membership, with different rights and obligations, and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members.

(2) The Directors may not, directly or indirectly, alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership.

(3) The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if:

(a) three-quarters of the members of that class consent in writing to the variation; or

(b) a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation.

(4) The provisions in these articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of members.

Termination of Membership.

4 Membership is terminated if:

(1) the member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist;

(2) the member resigns by written notice to the Charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members;

(3) any sum due from the member to the Charity is not paid in full within six months of its falling due;

(4) the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the Directors that it is in the best interests of the Charity that his or her membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:

(a) the member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;

(b) the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the Charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

General meetings.

5(1) The Charity must hold its first annual general meeting within eighteen months after the date of its incorporation.

(2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

(3) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

6 The Directors may call an extraordinary general meeting at any time.

Notice of general meetings.

7(1) The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Charity are:

- twenty-one clear days for an annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution;
- fourteen clear days for all other extraordinary general meetings.

(2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:

- in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote; and
- in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, who together hold not less than 95 per cent of the total voting rights.

(3) The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so and include a statement informing members of their right to appoint another person as their proxy.

(4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the Directors and auditors.

8 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person, who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting, did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Charity.

Proceedings at general meetings.

9(1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

(2) A quorum is:

- ten members entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting; or
- one tenth of the total membership at the time

whichever is the greater.

(3) The authorised representative of a member organisation and any proxies validly appointed by members (unless the appointing member is also present) shall be counted in the quorum;

10(1) If:

(a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or

(b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;

the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the Directors shall determine.

(2) The Directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

(3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting, the members present at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

11(1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors.

(2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, a Director nominated by the Directors shall chair the meeting.

(3) If there is only one Director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.

(4) If no Director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

12(1) The members present at a meeting (in person or by proxy) may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.

(2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened, unless those details are specified in the resolution.

(3) No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting, unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting, had the adjournment not taken place.

(4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

13(1) Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless, before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands, a poll is demanded

(a) by the person chairing the meeting; or

(b) by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

(c) by a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.

(2) (a) The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.

(b) The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the Charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.

(3) (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.

(b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn, the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

(4) (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.

(b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

(5) (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

(b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.

(c) The poll must be taken within thirty days after it has been demanded.

(d) If the poll is not taken immediately, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

(e) If a poll is demanded, the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

14 If there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to any other vote he or she may have.

15 A resolution in writing, signed by each member (or in the case of a member that is an organisation, by its authorised representative) who would have been entitled to vote upon it, had it been proposed at a general meeting, shall be effective. It may comprise several copies, each signed by or on behalf of one or more members.

Votes of members.

16(1) Subject to Articles 3 and 14 and the next paragraph, every member, whether an individual or an organisation, present in person or by proxy, shall have one vote.

(2) No member shall be entitled to vote, at any general meeting or at any adjourned meeting, if he or she owes any money to the Charity.

17 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.

18(1) Any organisation, which is a member of the Charity, may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity and may nominate an alternative person to act there as its representative on occasions when the initially nominated person does not attend any such meeting.

(2) The organisation must give written notice to the Charity of the name of its representative and its alternate. The nominees shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting, unless the notice has been received by the Charity. The nominees may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Charity. The alternate may not attend any meeting if the initially nominated person is there present.

(3) Any notice given to the Charity will be conclusive evidence that any such nominee is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Charity shall not be required to consider whether the nominee has been properly appointed by the organisation.

18A. Any member of the Charity (including a member organisation) is entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at a meeting of the Charity.

18B (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:-

(a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

(b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy; and

(d) is delivered to the Charity in accordance with these articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

(2) The Directors may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form and may specify different forms for different purposes.

(3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

(4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:-

(a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

(b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

18C (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that person.

(2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice given by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

(3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

(4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Directors.

19(1) A Director must be a natural person aged 18 years or older.

(2) No one may be appointed a Director if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 31.

20 The number of Directors shall be not less than five nor (unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution) more than twelve.

21 The first Directors shall be those persons notified to Companies House as the first directors of the Charity.

22 A Director may not appoint an alternate director or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Directors.

Powers of Directors.

23(1) The Directors shall manage the business of the Charity and may exercise all the powers of the Charity, unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Act, the memorandum, these articles or any special resolution.

(2) No alteration of the memorandum or these articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Directors.

(3) Any meeting of Directors, at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made, may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Directors.

Retirement.

24 At the first annual general meeting, all the Directors must retire from office, unless by the close of the meeting the members have failed to elect sufficient Directors to hold a quorate meeting of the Directors. At each subsequent annual general meeting, one-third of the Directors or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one third must retire from office. If there is only one Director, he or she must retire.

25(1) The Directors to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any Directors became or were appointed Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

(2) If a Director is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of these articles, the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting.

The Appointment of Directors.

26 The Charity may by ordinary resolution:

- appoint a person, who is willing to act, to be a Director; and
- determine the rotation in which any additional Directors are to retire.

27 No person, other than a Director retiring by rotation, may be appointed a Director at any general meeting unless:

(1) he or she is recommended for re-election by the Directors; or

(2) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date of the meeting, the Charity is given a notice that:

(a) is signed by a member entitled to vote at the meeting;

(b) states the member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a Director

(c) contains the details that, if the person were to be appointed, the Charity would have to file at Companies House; and

(d) is signed by the person, who is to be proposed, to show his or her willingness to be appointed.

28 All members, who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting, must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a Director, other than a Director who is to retire by rotation.

29(1) The Directors may appoint a person, who is willing to act, to be a Director.

(2) A Director appointed by a resolution of the other Directors must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation.

30 The appointment of a Director, whether by the Charity in general meeting or by the other Directors, must not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of Directors.

Disqualification and removal of Directors.

31 A Director shall cease to hold office if he or she:

(1) ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision in the Act or is prohibited by law from being a director;

(2) is disqualified from acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);

(3) ceases to be a member of the Charity;

(4) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his or her own affairs;

(5) resigns as a Director by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two Directors will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or

(6) is absent, without the permission of the Directors, from all their meetings held within a period of six consecutive months and the Directors resolve that his or her office be vacated.

Directors' remuneration.

32 The Directors must not be paid any remuneration, unless it is authorised by clause 5 of the Memorandum.

Proceedings of Directors.

33(1) The Directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the articles.

(2) Any Director may call a meeting of the Directors.

(3) The secretary must call a meeting of the Directors if requested to do so by a Director.

(4) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

(5) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

34(1) No decision may be made by a meeting of the Directors, unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made.

(2) The quorum shall be three or the number nearest to one third of the total number of Directors, whichever is the greater, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the Directors.

(3) A Director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Director is not entitled to vote.

35 If the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

36(1) The Directors shall appoint a Director to chair their meetings and may at any time revoke such appointment.

(2) If no-one has been appointed to chair meetings of the Directors or if the person appointed is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting.

(3) The person appointed to chair meetings of the Directors shall have no functions or powers, except those conferred by these articles or delegated to him or her by the Directors.

37(1) A resolution in writing, signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors and to vote upon the resolution, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held.

(2) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form each signed by one or more Directors.

Delegation.

38(1) The Directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of three or more Directors but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book.

(2) The Directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:

- the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;
- no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Directors.

(3) The Directors may revoke or alter a delegation.

(4) All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the Directors.

39 A Director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including, but not limited to, any personal financial interest).

40(1) Subject to paragraph 40(2), all acts done by a meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, shall be valid, notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Director:

- who was disqualified from holding office; or
- who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office; or
- who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise;

if without:

- the vote of that Director; and
- that Director being counted in the quorum;

the decision has been made by a majority of the Directors at a quorate meeting.

(2) Paragraph 40(1) does not permit a Director to keep any benefit, that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, if, but for paragraph 40(1), the resolution would have been void, or if the Director has not complied with article 39.

Seal.

41 If the Charity has a seal, it must only be used by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of Directors authorised by the Directors. The Directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and, unless otherwise so determined, it shall be signed by a Director and by the secretary or by a second Director.

Minutes.

42 The Directors must keep minutes of all:

- (1) appointments of officers made by the Directors;
- (2) proceedings at meetings of the Charity;
- (3) meetings of the Directors and committees of Directors including:
 - the names of the Directors present at the meeting;
 - the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - where appropriate, the reasons for the decisions.

Accounts.

43(1) The Directors must prepare, for each financial year, accounts as required by section 226 (or, if applicable, section 227) of the Act. The accounts must be prepared to show a true and fair view and follow accounting standards issued or adopted by the Accounting Standards Board or its successors and adhere to the recommendations of applicable Statements of Recommended Practice.

(2) The Directors must keep accounting records as required by sections 221 and 222 of the Act.

Annual Report and Return and Register of Charities.

44(1) The Directors must comply with the requirements of the Charities Act 1993 with regard to:

- (a) the transmission of the statements of account to the Charity;
- (b) the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission;
- (c) the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commission.

(2) The Directors must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the Charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

45 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the articles:

- (1) must be in writing; or
- (2) must be given using electronic communications.

46(1) The Charity may give any notice to a member either:

- (a) personally; or
- (b) by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his or her address; or
- (c) by leaving it at the address of the member; or
- (d) by giving it using electronic communications to the member's address.

(2) A member who does not register an address with the Charity or who registers only a postal address that is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Charity.

47 A member present in person at any meeting of the Charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and of the purposes for which it was called.

48(1) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

(2) Proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

(3) A notice shall be deemed to be given:

(a) 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted; or

(b) in the case of an electronic communication, 48 hours after it was sent.

Indemnity.

49 The Charity shall indemnify every Director or other officer or auditor of the Charity against any liability incurred by him or her in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in favour of the Director or in which the Director is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to the Director by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Charity.

Rules.

50(1) The Directors may from time to time make such reasonable and proper rules or bye-laws as they may deem necessary or expedient for the proper conduct and management of the Charity.

(2) The bye-laws may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:

(a) the admission of members of the Charity (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;

(b) the conduct of members of the Charity in relation to one another and to the Charity's employees and volunteers;

(c) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Charity's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;

(d) the procedure at general meetings and meetings of the Directors, in so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Act or by these Articles;

(e) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.

(3) The Charity in general meeting has the power to alter, add to or repeal the rules or bye-laws.

(4) The Directors must adopt such means as they think, sufficient to bring the rules and bye-laws to the notice of members of the Charity.

(5) The rules or bye-laws, shall be binding on all members of the Charity. No rule or bye-law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the memorandum or the articles.
